(Free Enterprise Society 6083 N. Figarden Drive PMB 208, Fresno, California 93722 (209) 966-7040.)

Recognition of the Free Enterprise Society Identification Card as a satisfactory form of identification arises from the case of People v. Monroe (1993) 12 Cal. App. 4th 1174, 1183-1194, consistent with California Legislation. According to the Court “The form of identification must bear a photograph and description of the person, their signature and a current mailing address, and must be current and serially or otherwise numbered. Such documentary evidence is the functional equivalent of a driver’s license because it is of equivalent reliability, and because it bears the information necessary to the citation process.” A peace officer “When presented with such proof must accept it as “satisfactory” [evidence of Identification.]” 12 Cal. App 4th @ 1187. This identification card is also sanctioned under Article IV Section 1 of the United States Constitution – (Full Faith and Credit Clause), and Article 1 of the Bill of Rights.
